EIA PROCESS & VISUAL APPLICATION
Notification of Public Participation for

The Knapwood Construction of a Mixed Use, Sport, Adventure and Tourism Development on Lot 1266, George Fox, Baynes

Public participation is an integral part of the Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) process. It is a process that allows the public to provide input and feedback on the proposed project and its potential impacts on the environment and the community. The purpose of this public participation process is to ensure that the public's views and concerns are taken into account in the decision-making process. This process is a key element of the EIA process and is required by the Environmental Impact Assessment Act (EIAA) of 2008.
